While Some were more pulse-raising than others, all created a terrific sense of place. There are other cities in this series, but I think it suits New Orleans best. A couple made me angry. Recommended to Jessica by: This book helped to change that for me. Other books in the series. I am a fan of Akashic Books in general, and I've sampled the stories in the other Noir collections, but this is the first one I've read cover to cover, mostly because I am from Louisiana.

New Orleans is the only one however in which I have never been to the city but have read 1 - 10 of 98 books. Few writers so unflinchingly reveal the dignity and indignity of a character, or push absurdity to the limit.
