Stella lives in the segregated South; in Bumblebee, North Carolina, to be exact about it. . This book is also about laughter, hope, family and above all, the blessings! And sorrow is so clearly etched in this story, but joy and triumph too. it does have interesting views into life for Black people in Depression era South, but.

The world has a woeful shortage of joy and a surplus of fear, worry, discouragement and depression. Even the "pursuit of happiness" and.
