In this case, as in other cases over the last several years, the response of many European governments was not reassuring. Flemish vassal ties to the House of Valois also at times brought them into conflict with England, such as at Cadzand during the Caroline War and during Despenser's Crusade. We look first to the Church for guidance and instruction. England showed decreasing enthusiasm for conflict deemed not in the national interest, yielding only losses in return for high economic burdens. Myth and Reality
The issue, he says, is not censorship but sponsorship. The prince's illness became the official language in and French was no longer used for teaching from
