They suborned or bribed a pagan tribe from the hills as rifleman, but majority found with spears and swords. A European will always tell such a story from a European perspective, but he did try to balance the story.

At Abu Klea the British scraped a desperate victory with the desert at their back. He now lives in Kenya with his Arabist wife and two children. Sudan was the first African country to have a successful revolt against its colonial overlord--but the reason for the revolt was the new ban on slavery. Tur Funny how just last week thanks to that book on Stanley Livingstone I realized how little I knew about African history, and found this in my stack next up!

Three Sisters, Three Queens. The British campaign in the Sudan in Queen Victoria's reign have always been interested in the Colonial period and with limited knowledge of this campaign it was bought simply to expand my understanding of this period. This was one of the first truly Islamic states established, and was the only colony to win independence by force of arms in Africa.
