She has two other really good series, which I will continue to search out and read. Francesca is sure she knows the link between the murder victims, but the police won't listen to her theory. Whacked with a lawn flamingo?

It's a book I wanted to finish, and quickly. Only recommended if you like lightweight formulaic murder mysteries. Francesca's downtown neighborhood with its diverse personalities suddenly becomes a gathering place for emergency responders - four murders in a very short span.

Please buy her novel so she can pay her MasterCard. Passable writing style, attempting to be familiar and witty.
