It needs to be stated over and over again until men become perfectly familiar with its terms. As many as seven times? Day after day I sat in the temple teaching, and you did not seize me. You speak of those who taught you to paint, to sing, to draw, to speak, to write,—do you ever mention his name, who loved you and gave himself for you? I will risk any argument upon the divinity of Christianity upon the experiences recorded in that volume.
