October, the fulness of Autumn, with its cool, clear, bracing air; with its gathered crops, rustling leaves, and golden light: On we dashed, amid the boiling, foaming seas. I helped him; but in half an hour the wind, as the Captain had foretold, was ahead, and not strong enough to fill the sails. Charley, another midshipman, or apprentice rather, and I formed part of her crew. Get in the jib. The pipe was jammed up to its bowl in the side of his mouth, and all he said came in jerks through his teeth.
