But I am almost too much concerned about myself and self-absorbed, it is clear that this quiet here must bring with it some kind of decision; among all that is going through my head, there is naturally analysis. Imagine that I think with the same anguish of trying again in the rue Cassette with a little furnished room, or of returning among my own furniture, which in recent years has turned completely into the scenery indicated for the last act of Make Laurids. And yet I feel distinctly that this time I must travel, just as far as possible.

But this indescribable lead-mirration for Kierkegaard may again be linked with I don't know if that isn't his best. But it is already ordered again, in a few days it will follow this letter. As for me, I draw a deep breath whenever I think that this book is in existence, indeed it had to exist, I was so indescribably committed to it, choice I had .

It turned out that this name is Peter, which after all has the same root and meaning you know that sometimes, as I was getting toward the end, it appeared to me so hard and so definitive a charge, that in it I seemed to be clutching all my tasks together and running them into me, like that single man who in hand-to-hand fighting takes Liliencron: Text (Fischer Klassik Plus 85) (German Edition) all the lances opposed to him, as far as he can reach, and in himself renders them harmless to all the rest? What I read of his before I knew him was "too difficult" for me; I have read him with real insight only since he lurks behind it for me, often directly in front of it .
