As their time together draws to an end, he must make a choice...forsake a solemn promise he made long ago committing him to a solitary life, or make a new one to his sworn enemy who has the power to open his heart and heal his wounds with love. Having had over twenty years of writing experience prior to becoming a full-time author of fiction, she was originally a copy-editor for a variety of journals, allowing her to find her own style in the process.

Sinclair's book and I find that this is my favourite. A voracious reader of romance books and a constant dreamer of romantic plots, I was encouraged to put my ideas to paper. This is going to be Rapp at his best and the new book comes out October 2nd. Aug 31, Clarice rated it really liked it. I am happy to say that this is one of those books.
