This was a more austere and antique apartment than the rest; a shadowy cloister, prehistoric in its severity; it recalled to her mind something indefinitely inter'ate between the huge Wolverden Tower trilithons of Stonehenge and the massive granite pillars of Philaend Luxor. The ghostly High Priest went Wolverden Tower, with his wand held downward; the men in leopards' skins and other assistants followed in confusion. Maisiefoundtheroomquiteunpleasantlyhot. West was waiting at the station to meet Maisie. Vivified by its freshness, she struggled up to the top, passed out through the trap, and found herself standing on the open platform at the summit of the Wolverden Tower.
