Women of the Muslim community in America could be described as both patriots and practitioners of faith. Most of the pieces are quite short and read more like blog posts, which is fine, but makes it hard to really absorb the authors as separate people. I highly recommend this book not only for leisure reading, but as a supplement in the classroom.

It follows our reading The Faith Club and Half the Sky, and brings us full circle.

Most of the pieces are quite short and read more like blog posts, which is fine, but if I could do half stars, I'd probably give this 3. I loved this book!

Amazon Inspire Digital Educational Resources. I highly recommend this book not only for leisure reading, but as a supplement in the classroom.
