Brendan isn't me or a version of me, but I am using the heightened world of detective fiction to communicate very impressionistic memories of high school, the feeling you got looking at the unobtainable girl who ruled Austin Malone school or the library early in the morning when the geeks are huddled around the desk lamps. Brick was filmed in Johnson's old high school. It lets the audience know that this isn't supposed to be a realistic film, that it operates under its own rules.
